SUBJECT: 210807 WUOM Act Ltr ACCEPT Inst MACCHM PR3 NFR

Dear President Richardson:

At its 4-7 August 2021 meeting, the Accreditation Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine<sup>1</sup> (ACAOM or Commission) reviewed the Third Institutional and Master's Program Progress Report due 1 June 2021 from Wongu University of Oriental Medicine (WUOM or Institution) documenting the Institution's progress in correcting cited findings of compliance with further development under applicable ACAOM accreditation standards. This report was required by ACAOM's Action Letter dated 24 August 2020.

COMMISSION FINDINGS

Based on its review of WUOM's accreditation record, the Commission found the following Criteria remain Compliant with Further Development:

Criterion 6.01: Systematic Evaluation

Criterion 6.03: Programmatic Review

The Commission acknowledges WUOM's efforts to develop a comprehensive plan for evaluation and improvement of the Institution and its master's program. The Institution must maintain its forward movement and routinize the steps of the plan to ensure the ongoing effectiveness of gathering data, evaluating the data, deriving action steps from data analysis, and evaluating the impact of actions made.

COMMISSION ACTION

Consistent with ACAOM's Commission Actions Policy, the Commission accepts the WUOM Third Progress Report as submitted. There is no further reporting required.

Please note the commission is not bound by a rigid sequence of actions, nor precluded from taking actions at any time, as warranted by evolving circumstances.

When responding to ACAOM correspondence, either by letter or electronically, please include the subject line(s) as issued by ACAOM.
