A complaint may be filed anonymously. If a complaint is filed anonymously, the Board may accept the complaint but may refuse to consider the complaint if anonymity of the complainant makes processing the complaint impossible or unfair to the person who is the subject of the complaint. If, from the complaint or from other records, it appears that the complaint is not frivolous, the Board may:

(a) Retain the Attorney General to investigate the complaint; and

(b) If the Board retains the Attorney General, transmit the original complaint and any facts or information obtained from the review to the Attorney General.

2. If the Board retains the Attorney General, the Attorney General shall conduct an investigation of the complaint transmitted to the Attorney General to determine whether it warrants proceedings for the modification, suspension or revocation of the license. If the Attorney General determines that further proceedings are warranted, the Attorney General shall report the results of the investigation and any recommendation to the Board.

3. The Board shall promptly make a determination with respect to each complaint reported to it by the Attorney General. The Board shall:

(a) Dismiss the complaint; or

(b) Proceed with appropriate disciplinary action.

4. The Board shall retain all complaints received by the Board pursuant to this section for at least 10 years, including, without limitation, any complaints not acted upon.

5. If the Board retains the Attorney General, the Attorney General may, in accordance with the provisions of NRS 228.113, charge the Board for all services relating to the investigation of a complaint pursuant to subsection 2.

2. Any person who violates subsection 1 is guilty of a misdemeanor. (Added to NRS by 1975, 214; A 1991, 1130)

NRS 634A.228 Practicing or offering to practice without license: Reporting requirements of Board. Unless the Board determines that extenuating circumstances exist, the Board shall forward to the appropriate law enforcement agency any substantiated information submitted to the Board concerning a person who practices or offers to practice ~~Oriental medicine~~ [East Asian Medicine] without a license issued pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(Added to NRS by 2013, 2228)

NRS 634A.230 Practice without license prohibited; penalties.

1. Any person who represents himself or herself as a practitioner of ~~Oriental medicine~~ [East Asian Medicine], or any branch thereof, or who engages in the practice of ~~Oriental medicine~~ [East Asian Medicine], or any branch thereof, in this State without holding a valid license issued by the Board is guilty of a gross misdemeanor, unless a greater penalty is provided pursuant to NRS 200.830 or 200.840.

2. In addition to any other penalty prescribed by law, if the Board determines that a person has committed any act described in subsection 1, the Board may:

(a) Issue and serve on the person an order to cease and desist until the person obtains from the Board the proper license or otherwise demonstrates that he or she is no longer in violation of subsection 1. An order to cease and desist must include a telephone number with which the person may contact the Board.

(b) Issue a citation to the person. A citation issued pursuant to this paragraph must be in writing, describe with particularity the nature of the violation and inform the person of the provisions of this paragraph. Each activity in which the person is engaged constitutes a separate offense for which a separate citation may be issued. To appeal a citation, the person must submit a written request for a hearing to the Board not later than 30 days after the date of issuance of the citation.

(c) Assess against the person an administrative fine as provided in NRS 634A.250.

(d) Impose any combination of the penalties set forth in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c). (Added to NRS by 1973, 640; A 1975, 236; 1981, 1291; 1991, 1130; 2013, 999, 2229)

NRS 634A.240 Injunctive relief.

1. The Board may maintain in any court of competent jurisdiction a suit for an injunction against any person who violates any provision of this chapter.

2. Such an injunction:

(a) May be issued without proof of actual damage sustained by any person, this provision being understood to be a preventive as well as a punitive measure.

(b) Shall not relieve such person from any criminal prosecution for the violation. (Added to NRS by 1973, 640; A 1975, 236; 1977, 306)
