2 Order, including facsimile signatures of the parties, may be used in lieu of original documents and
3 signatures and, further, that facsimile copies shall have the same force and effect as originals.

4 14. In consideration of the foregoing admissions and stipulations, the parties agree the
5 Board may, without further notice to or opportunity to be heard by Respondent, issue and enter
6 the following Disciplinary Order:

7 DISCIPLINARY ORDER

8 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Acupuncture License No. AC 10825, issued to 9 Respondent Yue Ling Eileen Han, L.Ac., shall be and hereby is Publicly Reprimanded pursuant
10 to California Business and Professions Code section 495. This Public Reprimand is issued in 11 connection with Respondent's conduct as set forth in Accusation No. 1A-2010-112, and as 12 summarized below:

13 A. PUBLIC REPRIMAND

14 In or about April and May 2010, you performed acupuncture and prescribed herbal
15 remedies for a 52 year old woman with a history of liver disease, neuropathy,
16 temporomandibular pain, head and neck pain, stabbing foot pain, hot flashes, night sweats,
17 fatigue, digestive disorders, and yellow eyes, but you failed to record an initial history and
18 physical, failed to record any problem-focused physical findings, and failed to record the 19 herbal remedies you prescribed. You therefore committed unprofessional conduct by 20 failing to maintain adequate and accurate records relating to the services you provided to 21 the patient as more fully described in Accusation No. 1A-2010-112.

22 B. MEDICAL RECORD KEEPING COURSE

23 Within 60 calendar days of the effective date of this Decision, Respondent shall enroll
24 in a course in medical record keeping, at her expense, approved in advance by the Board or 25 its designee. Failure to successfully complete the course within 180 calendar days of the 26 effective date of this Decision shall constitute unprofessional conduct and grounds for 27 further disciplinary action.

28 ///

1 A medical record keeping course taken after the acts that gave rise to the charges in
2 the Accusation, but prior to the effective date of the Decision may, in the sole discretion of
3 the Board or its designee, be accepted towards the fulfillment of this condition if the course
4 would have been approved by the Board or its designee had the course been taken after the
5 effective date of this Decision.

6 Respondent shall submit a certification of successful completion to the Board or its 7 designee not later than 15 calendar days after successfully completing the course, or not
8 later than 15 calendar days after the effective date of the Decision, whichever is later.

9 ACCEPTANCE

10 I have carefully read the above Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order and have fully 11 discussed it with my attorney, Jehan N. Jayakumar, Esq. I understand the Stipulation and the 12 effect it will have on my Acupuncture License No. AC 10825. I enter into this Stipulated
13 Settlement and Disciplinary Order voluntarily, knowingly, and intelligently, and agree to be
14 bound by the Decision and Order of the Acupuncture Board.

15 DATED: 12/5/2011

YUE LING EILEEN HAN, L.A.C.
Respondent

17
18 I have read and fully discussed with Respondent Yue Ling Eileen Han, L.A.C., the terms and 19 conditions and other matters contained in the above Stipulated Settlement and Disciplinary Order.

20 I approve its form and content.

JURISDICTION

3. This Accusation is brought before the Acupuncture Board (Board), Department of Consumer Affairs, under the authority of the following laws. All section references are to the Business and Professions Code unless otherwise indicated.

4. Section 4955 of the Code states:

"The board may deny, suspend, or revoke, or impose probationary conditions upon, the license of any acupuncturist if he or she is guilty of unprofessional conduct."

Unprofessional conduct shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

"...

"(d) ... [V]iolating ... the terms of this chapter or any regulation adopted by the board ..."

5. Section 4955.1 of the Code states:

"The board may deny, suspend, revoke, or impose probationary conditions upon the license of any acupuncturist if he or she is guilty of committing a fraudulent act including, but not limited to, any of the following:

"...

"(e) Failing to maintain adequate and accurate records relating to the provision of services to their patients."

6. California Code of Regulations, title 19, section 1399.453, states:

"An acupuncturist shall keep complete and accurate records on each patient who is given acupuncture treatment, including but not limited to, treatments given and progress made as a result of the acupuncture treatments"

7. Section 4959 of the Code states, in pertinent part:

"(a) The Board may request the administrative law judge, under his or her proposed decision in resolution of a disciplinary proceeding before the board, to direct any licensee found guilty of unprofessional conduct to pay to the board a sum not to exceed actual and reasonable costs of the investigation and prosecution of the case."

8. Section 125.3, subdivision (i), of the Code provides that the board is not precluded from “including the recovery of the costs of investigation and enforcement of a case in any stipulated settlement.”

FIRST CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Failure to Maintain Adequate and Accurate Records)

9. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under section 4955, as defined by section 4955.1, subdivision (e), in that she failed to maintain adequate and accurate records relating to the services she provided to patient SF. The circumstances are as follows:

10. On or about April 1, 2010, patient SF, a 52 year old woman, saw Respondent for the first time. Patient SF began but did not complete a patient history form on which she indicated she had a liver digestive disorder, neuropathy, hormones, headaches, temporomandibular (TMJ) pain, and head and neck pain. Respondent recorded in the progress notes that patient SF complained of a stabbing pain in the bottom of her feet, hot flashes, night sweats, and being tired. Respondent treated the foot pain with acupuncture. Respondent did not record an initial history and physical exam.

11. From about April 3, 2010 to or about April 29, 2010, Respondent saw patient SF seven times and continued to treat patient SF with acupuncture for the same general problems. During this time, Respondent did not record any problem-focused physical findings.

12. On or about May 19, 2010, Respondent saw patient SF for “Liver disorder, yellow eyes, Digestion problem, feet tingling.” Other than yellow eyes, Respondent did not record any problem-focused physical findings. Respondent treated the patient with acupuncture and herbs, but did not record the herbal remedy she provided to the patient.

13. On or about May 24, 2010, Respondent saw patient SF again. Respondent recorded “Herb” followed by what appear to be Chinese characters. Respondent did not record any problem-focused physical findings or the herbal remedy she provided.

14. On or about May 26, 2010, Respondent saw patient SF again, and recorded that the patient was "very much tired & pain Send her to Hospital w/ her mother." Respondent treated the patient with acupuncture. Respondent did not record any problem-focused physical findings.

1 15. Respondent committed unprofessional conduct by failing to maintain adequate and
2 accurate records relating to the services she provided to patient SF, as follows:

3 A. Respondent failed to record an initial history and physical exam when she first
4 saw patient SF.

5 B. Respondent failed to any record problem-focused physical findings for the 6 follow-up visits between April 3, 2010 and May 26, 2010.

7 C. Respondent failed to record the herbal remedies she provided for patient SF on 8 May 19 and 24, 2010.

9 SECOND CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

10 (Unprofessional Conduct)

11 16. Respondent is further subject to disciplinary action under section 4955, as defined by 12 section 4955, subdivision (d), and California Code of Regulations, title 16, section 1399.453, in 13 that she committed unprofessional conduct by failing to keep complete and accurate records in 14 her care and treatment of patient S.F., as set forth in paragraphs 9 through 15 above.

15 PRAYER

16 WHEREFORE, Complainant requests that a hearing be held on the matters herein alleged,
17 and that following the hearing, the Acupuncture Board issue a decision:

- 18 1. Revoking, suspending, imposing probationary conditions or other discipline on 19 Acupuncture License Number AC 10825, issued to Respondent Yue Ling Eileen Han, L.Ac.;
- 20 2. Ordering Respondent Yue Ling Eileen Han, L.Ac., to pay the Acupuncture Board the 21 reasonable costs of the investigation and enforcement of this case, pursuant to Business and 22 Professions Code sections 4959 and 125.3, subdivision (i); and,
- 23 3. Taking such other and further action as deemed necessary and proper.
